O R D E R:-

In the reference 1st read above, the Development Commissioner for Handlooms, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, New Delhi has stated that the Government of India has adopted a Cluster Approach since 2005-06 for integrated and holistic development of the handloom pockets. In phase-I, 20 clusters have been taken up in 12 States and each cluster covers about 5,000 handlooms and is to be developed in timeframe of 4 years. The action plan of the 1st year (2006-07) was approved in November, 2006 and subsequently, the action plans for the years for 2007-08 and 2008-09 have been approved and are under implementation. The progress of those clusters is monitored by the Development Commissioner for Handlooms Office as well as by the High Level Committee, headed by the Secretary (Textiles), Ministry of Textiles.

2. The Development Commissioner, Handlooms, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, New Delhi has also stated that the Integrated Handloom Development Scheme (I.H.D.S.) has been introduced and the Cluster Development Programme, as one of the components has been continued in the 11th Plan period and is a flagship programme of the Government. Further, each cluster is to be developed in a timeframe of 3 years. Therefore, looking to the importance of the programme and its timely implementation, it has been decided that each State should constitute a Review Committee, headed by the Secretary in-charge of Handlooms and Textiles for reviewing the physical and financial progress of each Cluster and take corrective action wherever required. The Committee should review the progress every quarter. The Development Commissioner for Handlooms, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, New Delhi has requested the Government of Andhra Pradesh to take immediate steps to constitute the Review Committee to review the performance of the clusters sanctioned in phase-II, III & IV and submit the minutes of meeting to his Office by 30-04-2009.
